

More than Sunday

Church members carefully consider commitment of their precious “third place” time choices to maximize experience away from home and work. Churches are answering the call by creating engaging places with amenity-rich spaces for people to enjoy seven days a week, whether for worship, education, recreation, socializing or business.

