

"We have had many comments about the beauty of our Sanctuary. It is so usable and we have been able to have a worshipful atmosphere as well as to use the facility for musicals, dramas, and other unusual activities. The symbolism of the Sanctuary is very appropriate, and we find that people are very pleased ."

Noel White, Pastor
Trinity Hill United Methodist Church
Lexington, Kentucky

"The finished 'product' is not only aesthetically pleasing, but has proved to be most functional. The people at Omni have taken pride in their work with us, and it shows!"

The Rev. Robert D. Matheus, Rector
St. Raphael the Archangel
Episcopal Church
Lexington, Kentucky

"During the planning process the architects were responsive to our needs and desires. We appreciated their response to input concerning the building and their ability to respond to our ideas. They were also very good at keeping us abreast of each stage in the design process... Omni was extremely helpful in finding ways to enable us to construct our building within our budget."

Bruce W. Boss, Vicar
Episcopal Church of the Resurrection
Nicholasville, Kentucky

"The design awards that the church and multi-purpose building received from your peers also speaks of the quality of your work as well as affirming the great satisfaction of the parish as a whole and the building committee. Given that we asked you back for the second major construction project speaks for itself of our level of satisfaction."

Rev. William D. Hammer, Director
Office of Ecumenism
Archdiocese of Louisville

"Throughout the planning and construction, Omni Architects has been very helpful. They have listened well as we identified our needs and they have been faithful in designing to accommodate those needs. The architects have always been very professional and have provided us with good advice every step along the way. They keep a vigilant eye on construction costs to help us stay within the project budget."

Sister Theresa Knabel, Project Director
Sisters of Charity of Nazareth Center
Nazareth, Kentucky

"The experience and concepts of Omni were the most significant fact in our building's development."

John G. Allen, Jr.
Emmanuel Episcopal Church
Winchester, Kentucky
